"Nathan Boone House"

This residence located in Femme Osage, Missouri was built in the year 1816 by Nathan Boone, son of Daniel Boone the famous pioneer of Missouri and Kentucky.

Daniel Boone died in this house September 26, 1820.

Nathan Boone was born in North Carolina and came to Missouri in the year 1800 and married Miss Olive Vanbibber.

He received his Commission as Lieut Col. from President Fillmore in the year 1850. He died in October 1856 at the age of 76 years.

This is a two and one-half story stone house.

Information received from "Pioneer Families of Missouri" and Mr. Frank Curlee, the present owner.

EDWARD L. PLEITSON.

HISTORICAL AND ARCHITECTURAL INFORMATION

The following information was recorded by Alexander Piaget and Charles van Ravenswaay at the time the photograph was taken:

Blue limestone quarried on farm. Center hall and three rooms on first floor, two rooms and hall on second floor. Walnut woodwork throughout. Seven mantels said to have been carved by Daniel Boone.

PROJECT INFORMATION

The Piaget-van Ravenswaay Survey consists of a number of photographs, primarily of sites and structures in Missouri, which were taken before 1938 by Alexander Piaget and after that by Paul Piaget, both in conjunction with Charles van Ravenswaay. Photographs of buildings were incorporated into the HABS collection in 1985 by Laura Rupp and in 1986 by Deborah Fulton, HABS historians. A master list is available in the ~~MO-159~~ records for MO-1800.
